

Chaise T37 perforée^{*}

Designed by Xavier Pauchard, revisited by Chantal Andriot

perforated T37 chair*

Created in 1937 by Xavier Pauchard and named after the same year, the T37 Chair is still a bestseller in industrial design. With its restrained and classic look, the T37 hasn't aged a day and remains a reference in industrial design. This perforated version makes the T37 Chair lighter and more modern.
